++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Outbreaks of rain or showers, these sometimes heavy and thundery.

Today:
Outbreaks of rain across some northern and western areas this morning will be replaced by sunny spells and showers across the region. Some showers will become heavy with a chance of hail and thunder. Breezy, especially along the coast. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Scattered heavy, sometimes thundery, showers at first. Overnight remaining breezy, with some clear spells developing, as the showers become largely confined to Derbyshire with only isolated showers continuing elsewhere. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Breezy with sunny spells and showers, some of these becoming heavy with a chance of thunder, but mainly across northern areas with showers more isolated and less thundery further south. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Showers or longer spells of rain Monday, locally heavy and sometimes thundery. Tuesday scattered showers, but lighter than previously. Wednesday mainly dry, often cloudy but some bright or sunny spells.
